Immediate report – Motion for certification of a class action against yes Television and Communication Services Ltd.

The Company reports that on August 24, 2023, the subsidiary, yes Television and Communication Services Ltd. ("yes") informed the Company that it had received a claim with a motion for its certification as a class action filed against yes at the Central-Lod District Court.

According to the allegations in the motion, yes does not act in compliance with the law, including Section 18B(a1)(3) of the Consumer Protection Law, 1981 and the provisions of its license, regarding the waiting time until a representative responds to a call.

In the motion, it is stipulated that at this stage, it is estimated that the class action amounts to more than NIS 2.5 million.

yes is studying the details of the motion and at this stage, neither yes nor the Company is able to assess its implications.

Yours sincerely,

"Bezeq" The Israel Telecommunication Corp Limited
