Yaki Zano, VP Technologies & Network at Bezeq, announces his resignation

Tel Aviv, Israel – July 9, 2018 – Bezeq The Israel Telecommunication Corp., Ltd. (TASE: BEZQ), Israel's leading telecommunications provider, today announced that Yaki Zano, VP Technologies & Network has informed the Company's CEO, Stella Handler, of his resignation, after three years in the position. Zano will remain in his position as long as required, and during this period, the Company will work to locate a replacement.

Zano's long and successful professional career started as a technician with digital switchboards and progressed to managing the Company's entire technology and network activities.

Following his resignation Handler stated, "Yaki grew up in Bezeq and in his last position led the Company to real achievements, developing the foundations of the new network on which Bezeq will base itself in the coming years. Yaki worked to expand the Company's telecommunications infrastructure to be able to handle the transfer of enormous amounts of data in the most effective possible manner and to upgrade the IT systems. At the same time, Yaki managed impressive innovative processes when entering new areas of business, and adapting them to the new era of cloud-based data services. I thank Yaki for his excellent work and wish him every success in the future."

Zano said, "I end 3 exciting years crowded with achievement, in which I had the honor to lead a fantastic division made up of highly motivated employees, of a first class professional level in every area of activity and all fully focused on the Company's success. During this period, we have succeeded in carrying out changes to the IT systems and to change the direction of the organization's core systems, adapting them to future needs. We have developed the Bezeq broadband network and brought it to readiness to launch at high speeds, and to develop and implement innovative products and services in the fields of IoT, cyber, the cloud and more, all while retaining a high level of operational continuity. Bezeq, its employees and managers have been and will remain for me home, and there will always be a large place for them in my heart. I wish the Company great success in all its challenges and I am convinced it will continue to be the leading telecommunications company in Israel."
