Dismissal of Appeals - Applications to Approve Derivative Claims

Pursuant to the Company's Immediate Report dated December 28, 2016 concerning the dismissal of two appeals for two (consolidated) applications for the approval of derivative claims concerning distributions of a dividend that the Company made and the loan it took, it is hereby reported that on January 3, 2017 two additional claims against the Company for declarative relief in respect of the dividend distributions and general meetings were deferred (by agreement), for which the date of the hearing had been postponed (on account of the similarity of the proceedings) until a final ruling on the appeals on the two applications for approval of derivative claims. For further information about these two claims see section 2.18(C) of the chapter, Description of the Company's Business in the Company's 2015 Annual Report.
